MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

[Redacted]

Chairman

25X1

SUBJECT:

Capitol Hill Security

The attached letter was hand-delivered by Jay Aldhizer, FBI Liaison Officer, today. Although Mr. O'Malley's wording of the four conditions of FBI acceptance of the prime responsibility for Capitol Hill technical security differs slightly from that of my memo to you, I believe the two documents are substantially the same in all relevant aspects. If you find this latest iteration acceptable, I will reschedule the meeting with Gene Dean to hand over the program.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Gene Dean

FROM:

SUBJECT: Capitol Hill Security (U)

1. Mr. Aldhizer asked me to broker the attached proposal with the DDCI. Mr. McMahon has approved the arrangement. It is now necessary to document the FBI's agreement. Please arrange for Mr. O'Malley to send Mr. McMahon a memo acknowledging the FBI's assumption of this responsibility under the terms of the attachment. As soon as this is done, I suggest that Burt Hutchings, CIA Legislative Liaison, and I meet with you and the appropriate Legislative Branch and Capitol Police officials to transfer the program. [Redacted]

2. On a related topic, I would urge you to energize the Army to press on with negotiations to place a countermeasures team on Capitol Hill to cover DoD testimony. Col. Press tells me he was advised by "the FBI action officer" to stand down on this effort. Captain Boyle of the Capitol Police has expressed his concern about lack of response from the Army on this matter. [Redacted]
